

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CONTRIBUTORS

The following instructions have become necessary in view of the experience gained by the Editor for all these years. These instructions specially apply to the National Contributors. The observance of the instructions will greatly facilitate printing, proof reading and as a result will do away with avoidable mistakes of grammar, composition and spellings. The Editor hopes they will be accepted in the spirit of co-operation.

1. All the articles are accepted with the understanding that they are primarily contributed to the Indian Journal of Dermatology and Venereology.

2. Reproductions are allowed after obtaining prior permission of the editor in writing. Proper credit should be given to our journal.

3. Contributors are requested to double space the manuscripts. They are further requested to go through the type script at least twice and correct all mistakes of typing before despatching it to the Editor.

4. Illustrations, diagrams and figures should be properly numbered as per the reference in the text. The legends should accompany the figures or should be given on a separate paper numberwise. It is essential that all the diagrams etc. should be clear.

5. The contributors should arrange the references in alphabetical order of the authors' names.

6. The authors are requested to give all the details regarding the qualifications, position and address. Please notify the change in address immediately.

7. All the communications should be addressed to the Editor.

8. The Editor reserves the right to make appropriate corrections in the manuscripts.

9. The authors are requested to remind the Editor if their material is not published for 2 issues subsequent to the despatch of their material.

10. Non-accepted material will be sent back if the authors so desire.

11. Usually 25 reprints are supplied free of cost. Additional reprints are supplied at cost if the request of the same is made while sending the material.

12. Non-receipt of the journal as well as reprints should be brought to the Editor's notice by 15th of the next month of publication (e. g. 15th July for May-June issue.)
