

Announcement...

I. A. D. V. & L next conference (January 1982)

Nominations for award of the GLAXO and AMBADDY orations for the X All India Conference of IADVL to be held in January 1982 are invited. They must be accompanied by a biodata of the proposed individual, and should reach the undersigned by the 1st week of May 1981.

Abstracts of papers for the X All India Conference of I.A.D.V.L. to be held in January 1982 must reach the undersigned by the 1st of August 1981. Results of the work must be clearly stated. Papers stating that the results will be discussed or those reaching late may be excluded from consideration.

Dr. V. R. Mehta

Chairman, Scientific Committee, I. A. D. V. L.
152, Vishramalaya, Sion Circle, Sion, Bombay 400022

The XVI International Congress of Dermatology will be held in Tokyo, during May 23—28, 1982.

Scientific programme

Special lectures, Advances in dermatology, Symposia, Workshops, Courses, Case presentation, free communications, informal discussion and posters.

Dermatologists wishing to participate in these events are requested to contact the following respective organisers :

Dr. D. S. Wilkinson, Whitecroft, Hervines Road., Amersham HP6 5HT, England for Case Presentations

Professor F. Serri, Dept. of Dermatology, Universita Cattolica del Sacre Cuore, Via della Pineta Sacchetti 644, 1-00168 ROMA, Italy for Free Communications

Professor Dominguez Soto, Hospital General, Dr. Manuel Geo Gonzalez, Calz de Tlalpan 4.800, Mexico 22 D. F. for Informal Discussions

Professor Alejandro Cordero, Carlos Pellegrini 1560, 1011 Buenos Aires, Argentine for the Posters.

I. U. V. D. T. Conference

The 2nd regional meeting of International Union against the Venereal Diseases and Treponematoses Conference 1981, S. E. Asian and Western Pacific Region, will be held from October-23-26, 1981.

Proposed Themes with special emphasis on regional problems will include :

Primary Theme

1. The changing pattern of drug resistance of the gonococcus (with special reference to B Lactamase producers) and its effect on treatment and control.

Secondary Themes

1. The rising tide of Viral S. T. D.
2. Recent problems with the control of Syphilis
3. Is a chlamydial laboratory service worthwhile? (N. S. U. and Chlamydia - help or hindrance)
4. Obstetric venereology

Included amongst the overseas speakers will be Dr. R. D. Catterall of London, president of the I.U.V.D.T. Notable speakers from the U.S.A. and Singapore are also anticipated.

Anyone wishing to attend and/or present a paper please address enquiries to: I. U. V. D. T. Conference, Postgraduate Office, The Medical Centre, Christchurch Hospital, Christchurch, New Zealand.

Society for Cutaneous Ultrastructure Research (SCUR)

The 8th Annual meeting of SCUR will be held at Guy's Hospital, London, England, from 21st to 23rd May 1981.

Participants, contributions from dermatologists and other interested scientific workers are invited. For details and registration forms please write to:

Dr. D. M. MacDonald,
Secretary of the Organising Committee, Department of Dermatology,
Guy's Hospital, St. Thomas Street, London, SE1 9RT, England.

(Also see page Nos. 49 and 55)