

WHAT IS YOUR DIGNOSIS ?

Fig. 1

Fig. 2

Fig. 3

Fig. 4

Fig. 5

- Fig. 1: Hyperpigmentation of face, increased skin markings, papillomatous growth on the eyelids, at nasal orifices, ankle of mouth and upper lip.
- Fig. 2: In addition to the features in Fig. 1, shows pigmentation on the tongue.
- Fig. 3: Hyperpigmentation and increased skin markings in popliteal fossa.
- Fig. 4: Pigmentation and thickening of skin on dorsa of hands.
- Fig. 5: Pigmentation on palms and thickening of palmar skin.

(Diagnosis overleaf)

Answer

35 year old female noticed change in the skin for 6 months. Diagnosed as Acquired Acanthosis Nigricans. On investigation had inoperable Ca stomach.