

Primary drug resistant cutaneous tuberculosis: A retrospective case series of seven patients

In the article, titled, “Primary drug resistant cutaneous tuberculosis: A retrospective case series of seven patients”, published in Indian Journal of Dermatology, Venereology and Leprology¹, in the footnote of Table 2 on page S23, Supplement 1, Volume 91, May-June 2025, the abbreviation of Eto was incorrectly mentioned for Etoposide instead of Ethionamide.

However, in the subsequent Table 3, the same as correctly mentioned as it should have been.

The error in the footnote of Table 2 has now been corrected in the online version of the article.
