

IJDVL Awards 2015

Every year, our Journal recognises the authors of articles that are judged to be the best in their category, selected by members of the editorial team.

The winners of the awards for articles published in 2015 are:

Bishnupriya Devi Award for best Original Article

Histopathological characteristics of post kala-azar dermal leishmaniasis: a series of 88 patients. Singh A, Ramesh V, Ramam M. Indian J Dermatol Venereol Leprol. 2015 Jan-Feb; 81:29-34.

Indubala Memorial Award for best article on occupational contact dermatitis/contact dermatitis

Performance of a commercially available plant allergen series in the assessment of suspected occupational contact dermatitis to plants in north Indian patients. De D, Khullar G, Handa S. Indian J Dermatol Venereol Leprol. 2015 Jul-Aug; 81:376-9

Best Case Reports/Letters

Till last year, we used to have one award for the best Case Report and 2 awards for the best Letters. But we now publish only 1-2 case reports in every issue and quite a few letters, and since there is so much overlap in their content we have decided to club them into one group for award purposes.

Cutaneous tuberculosis due to multidrug-resistant tubercle bacilli and difficulties in clinical diagnosis. Ramesh V, Sen MK, Sethuraman G, D'Souza P. Indian J Dermatol Venereol Leprol. 2015 Jul-Aug; 81:380-4.

Spontaneous regression in an ulcerated CK7 positive Merkel cell carcinoma. Khader A, George S, Balakrishnan S, Aravindan KP. Indian J Dermatol Venereol Leprol. 2015 Mar-Apr;81:170-3.

Elastosis linearis rubra nasi: a new clinical entity in the spectrum of localized nodular elastosis. Verma SB, Joshi RS. Indian J Dermatol Venereol Leprol. 2015 Jan-Feb; 81:62-4.

Best Image in Clinical Practice

Constricting band following incomplete condom removal. Kumar J, Ramesh V. Indian J Dermatol Venereol Leprol. 2015 Sep-Oct; 81:542.

Congratulations to all the award winners.
Thank you to all our contributors.

A happy new year to all our readers!
